

Tami Schmitz

With 17 years of experience in animal welfare, I am deeply passionate about supporting the human-animal bond. Throughout my career, I've worn many hats, starting as a technician, then transitioning to a humane educator, and now proudly serving as the Director of Engagement. My journey has shaped my commitment to fostering positive connections