

Nicole Cacy

Nicole has 15 years of experience in animal welfare, including roles with nonprofit shelters, Guide Dogs for the Blind, and as a behavior consultant. As Director of Shelter Operations at Humane Society Silicon Valley, she leads the adoption, foster, and rescue teams, overseeing the end-to-end journey of animals from intake to placement in loving homes. Nicole combines her expertise in operations and animal behavior with a passion for innovation and leadership to enhance animal welfare and community impact.
