

Katie Ingram

Katie has been the Animal Services Manager at Placer County Animal Services in Auburn, California for eight years. Since joining the team, she has been responsible for the opening of the new, state-of-the-art animal shelter, increasing community engagement and developing new and progressive shelter programs.

During her time at Placer County Animal Services, Katie has led her team in partnering with local non-profits to provide free spay/neuter to more than 1,000 community cats and kittens, outsourcing neonatal kitten rearing for the shelter, developing, and building a robust foster program for older kittens and implementing a barn cat and TNR program for community cats. Additionally, she has led a team of emerging supervisors to implement successful marketing and adoption programs for shelter dogs, doggy day out and overnight visits and foster to adopt programs. These programs have proved incredibly successful for lifesaving allowing Placer County Animal Services to achieve a live release rate of more than 90% since 2017!

Katie has worked in the Animal Sheltering industry for the past 17 years serving previously as the Assistant Director at OC Animal Care in Orange County, CA. During her time at OC Animal Care, she also oversaw the Volunteer, Foster, Public Education/Outreach, Rescue Coordination and TNR programs, which were responsible for saving thousands of shelter animals each year.
